

Site Operators Required in Warwick

Would you like to be a member of a growing team of approximately 300 successful, self-employed conveyor car wash operators? Would you like to be your own boss, running and developing your own business, backed by the support and training of the World's largest independent dedicated car wash company?

We are currently looking for hard working, motivated self-employed operators, dedicated to building a successful business. You will receive a generous commission paid daily for each car washed and will have the opportunity to enhance your earnings by offering additional valeting services. There is no ceiling on your earnings, start up costs are low and a full training and support package is provided.

If you would like to join our winning team and are interested in the site detailed above please fill out an application form available on the URL link on the web site and return it to recruitment@imo-carwash.co.uk or to the postal address below. You will also find more company information and further details about the site operator role on the web site.

Opportunities are available to both male and female candidates.
